For Our Valued Members

Enhanced Member Benefits

In addition to helping consumers, farmers and affiliate communities (like CSAs, farmers markets, food co-ops and clubs), the FTCLDF is now stepping up to guide artisan food producers—bread and cheese makers, fermenters and kombucha brewers—so that these foods will be more easily accessible for you and me.

The FTCLDF also offers Non-Member Consulting Agreements for those farmers who, for religious reasons, conscientiously choose not to use the member benefit of possible litigation support.

Since the beginning, the FTCLDF has provided these core benefits to all members:

- Possible Representation
- Legal Consulting
- 24/7 Hot Line Access
- Consultations for farm best management practices
- Contracts and other documents
- Private members only website

But, now, the FTCLDF has added some new exciting and tangible membership benefits including:

- FREE Access to Conference Recordings – posted on the members only website, including the 2011 Raw Milk Symposium audio recordings ($47 value) and the three-hour Activist Workshop video recording by Judith McGeary, Esq. taped at the 2011 WAPF conference ($125 value).
- FREE educational handbooks – Safe Handling—Consumers' Guide by Peggy Beals, RN (consumers), Raw Milk Production Handbook by Tim Wightman (farmers) and Food Clubs and Co-ops by John Moody (affiliate communities). Artisan food producers have their choice of either Safe Handling or Raw Milk Production. (up to $12 value)
- And now, members can now have a 15% favored customer discount on all items, at all times on the FTCLDF online store. Why wait for a sale? Join/Renew so you can shop & save now! Please lend your support for the FTCLDF and join today!
